A spatial panel data analysis of crime rates in EU punishment of crime et al. have always had an important place in research disciplines like psychology, biology, sociology, law and economics. Scholars from different disciplines have aimed at exploring the determinants of crime and thus contributed to the efforts浃ted by authorities in order to decrease crime. JOURNALISM IS NOT A CRIME in Turkey is tantamount to punishment without conviction it calls for their release and for charges against them to be dropped unless there is clear evidence that an internationally recognized crime has been committed. This clampdown on the media is the recent example of the use of state terror to silence voices that dare to challenge conventional narratives.
